West Orange Chess Club

WHO: The West Orange Chess Club is one of the two largest chess clubs in the state. It is oriented around an atmosphere of inclusivity and welcoming under the core belief that chess should be a welcoming sport for all. Our current members range from age 5 to 92.

WHEN: Every Tuesday evening from 6-10 pm, except holidays. On rare occasions the township closes the facility for private events.

WHERE: Toby Katz Community Center. 650 Pleasant Valley Way. West Orange, NJ 07052

The location can be tricky to find. It's hidden behind the baseball fields and lake next to West Orange High School. Take the access road between the school and the fields. It's the little building at the end of the road. Parking is usually available, but on occasion parking at the high school (two-minute safe walk away) may be necessary.

EQUIPMENT: Sets, boards, and clocks are provided.

ACTIVITIES: Open / casual play, rated tournament play, inter-club play, blitz chess, and informal education and informational discussions. The level of play ranges from beginners to Master.

ACCESSIBLE: The location (to the best of our knowledge) meets ADA specifications for people with disabilities.

530-830pm

Westfield Chess Club

The club conducts tournaments most Sundays throughout the year. There are no formal meetings. Our current club champion is Maxim Farberov of Summit. Contact Haibo Hu westfieldchessclub@gmail.com Our tournaments are held at the Westfield YMCA on 220 Clark Street in Westfield 9am-6pm

New Providence Chess Club

Quality chess-events led by locally-sourced community members. Free of charge.

WHO: New Providence Chess Club is a club run by the community for all ages and playing strengths. We want to bring the joy of chess to as many people as possible, which is why all of our events are free of charge. No membership required

WHEN: We meet twice a week: Mondays for lectures (4:30-5:30) and game play (5:30-6:30), and Fridays for more casual games (4:30-6:30). Feel free to come and go at any time!

WHERE: On Monday nights, we meet in the New Providence Memorial Library at 377 Elkwood Ave, New Providence, New Jersey. Our Friday night events are at Strawberry Fields Frozen Yogurt, which is at 12 South St, New Providence, New Jersey.

EQUIPMENT: We provide all sets, boards, and clocks.

ACTIVITIES: Our lectures cover chess strategy, and you're guaranteed to learn something new, whether you're a beginner or a grandmaster. We also hold game nights where you can play against others of your own strength. We also hold rated and unrated free/no profit tournaments for you to gain valuable tournament experience.

ONLINE: You can visit our website at www.npchessclub.org, and follow us on Instagram at @npchessclub

Kenilworth Chess Club

575 Kenilworth Blvd., Kenilworth NJ

President Jack McCorkell, kenilworthchessclub@gmail.com

WHO: Established in 1972, the Kenilworth Chess Club is a fun and active club for beginner, intermediate, expert and master chess players. Visitors and new members are always welcome and chess lessons are available. Membership is not required to play, but some activities (such as our annual Club Championship tournament) are open only to members.

WHEN: We meet every Thursday night beginning at 7:30 p.m. (7:00PM during Summer months)

WHERE: in the Recreation Center at 575 Kenilworth Boulevard in Kenilworth, New Jersey. Enter through the rear door. The building is easy to find at the corner of 24th Street and less than a mile west of Garden State Parkway Exit 138 . It is the building to the left of the Kenilworth Municipal Building.

EQUIPMENT: Chess sets, boards, and clocks are provided.

ACTIVITIES: Most meetings feature casual play and discussion. We also often host chess instructional lectures, unrated and rated tournaments, and provide preparation activities in advance of the major regional rated tournaments. The KCC is a co-founder (along with the West Orange Chess Club) of the Garden State Chess League and proffers at least one club team each year in its annual club championship tournament. The Kenilworth Chess Club's team is this year's Garden State Chess League Hybrid Division Club Champion (the hybrid division competes in both OTB & On-Line matches).
